MALE CALL

Eat Your Heart Out Ken

We have recently received an immense response from your readers to a piece in #184 featuring Billy, the world's first out and proud gay doll . We would like to thank you for featuring Billy in your magazine. Since his launching, he has appeared in The Guardian (UK), The Independent (UK), Le Monde (France), La Stampa (Italy), El Pais (Spain), Elle (Japan) and Details (USA).

J. M., Friends of Billy,

London, England

Ed. We are happy to be listed among the ranks of such prestigious publications.

Fascinated With Big, Burly Men

I've been reading your magazine for about eight years. It has helped me a great deal with coming to grips with my fascination with leather and big burly men. One of the artists that you feature is DOMINO. I really like his work and was hoping you could give me some information on how I could purchase a portfolio or collection of his works. Since he draws exactly the kind of men I enjoy, I would much appreciate this information.

K.P., Chicago, IL

Ed. Your letter was passed along to DOMINO. We like his work too; below are two of our favorites from "Stompers."

Great article on spandex in #182. Spandex is a versatile medium. It can make a top look even more macho (those bulging crotches in skin-tight black tights) or it can make a bottom even more submissive (unprotected cock and balls become so vulnerable in black or white spandex). Latex hoods and masks under bike helmets can also be a great turn on as are spandex tights under bike leathers they look and feel good!

My former master, now completely shaved of beard, ponytail and every other hair, and no longer in possession of his bike leather, boots and leather mask, is so much more submissive in his specially designed spandex body suit. A quick readjustment of his shaved equipment - up between his legs and out of sight transforms the former stud into a stockinged slut with all that that implies. We look forward to the next series on spandex!

B., South Sydney, Australia Ed. Thanks. We at International Drummer never miss an opportunity to expand our horizons!

Turning To Rubber

Received issue #185 today. I enjoy your magazine a lot and I was pleased > to see your attention turned to rubber.

Brooklyn, NY Ed. Thanks. We were a bit nervous slipping out of our tried and true leather gear and sliding into rubber. Glad you liked it.

gets my blood churning. But recently I ordered and received two products from your advertiser, Shotgun Video Sales that turned me inside out with pure lust!! Their claim that their videos "exceed usual standards of production and content," is not an exaggeration. The powers that be at this company know what they are doing, and they are doing it very well. Thought you all might like to know this is an advertiser who delivers.

I've been enjoying your publication for years, keep up the good work, you all are needed and valued. Make waves if necessary!

Pamper That Boy

I've been reading Drummer for the last five years and am looking forward to the next five.

Based on the last five years, it seems that the vast majority of Daddies and Masters are ignoring a very effective training tool, namely diapers. Putting your boy or slave in diapers is a safe, inexpensive way of keeping him in his place. They serve as a constant reminder of his subservient state. They take away his manhood and reduce him to the little boy that he is. If you really want to see him squirm, give him an enema before diapering him. The next time your boy fails you, tell him he's acting like a little boy and diaper him. He will remember the lesson for a long time.

Keep up the good work.

Unsigned, Augusta, GA

Ed. More power to you. If I had ever dared to put my boys in diapers they would have stabbed me in the heart with their diaper pins. Perhaps I should have considered using Pampers (no pins.)

The Mighty Meat

BY DYRK

MOST DRUMMER READERS WILL PROBABLY AGREE THAT ONE OF THE
BEST THINGS IN LIFE IS AN UNCUT
PIECE O' MEAT THAT YOU CAN PLAY WITH, CHEW ON AND EXPLORE TO YOUR HEART'S CONTENT.

Well for those of us who have to go out to get what we crave because our parents and their choice of pediatricians decided that our foreskins were disposable, read on!

In his book The Joy of Uncircumcising!, published by Hourglass Book Publishing, author Jim Bigelow, Ph.D., says one can "restore your birthright and maximize sexual pleasure." He also says "most men who say 'I'm circumcised and I'm just fine' are either unaware as to how circumcision diminishes the penis or are in denial in order to block out their pain and the feelings of hopelessness."

Bigelow gives an in-depth exploration of nearly all aspects of circumcision and restoration. He discusses the natural penis and builds a case for the wonder of the uncircumcised experience. His clinical examination (which also has a tendency to assume his readers are largely straight men) describes the psychological aspects and physical advantages and disadvantages of being uncut, cut and re-uncut.

Historical information and common medical as well as religious beliefs are touched on as Bigelow tells his readers how to restore the skin that was brutally and unnecessarily clipped away from their penises.

I have not experienced the trauma Bigelow describes and I'm cut. I have not experienced the benefits to having an uncut or restored foreskin either. But I do appreciate a beautiful uncut cock as it rests flaccidly on a big pair of balls, how the extra skin may or may not retract from the head of a dick that I helped make hard, the pleasure I get in playing with a stud's sexy hood.

Just Kink

There are producers out there who know how to exploit the kinky fetishes that are at the heart of many men's secret and intense fantasies. A recent batch of Kink Video releases includes Butt Munch II, Command of the Hand, The Spanking Zone, Spank My Ass, Foot Wrestling and my favorite Ass Work. The beauty of Kink Videos are that their titles reflect the content.

Due to space restrictions, I would like to focus this portion of Drummedia on Ass Work. For those of you who are disappointed, here's the abridged version of all the aforementioned videos: lick, sniff, probe, probe, spank, smack, thwack, toes, socks and more. How's that?

I don't know what it is about eroticism but it can sometimes really be enhanced by an interesting theme. And that's exactly what occurs in Ass Work. In this video we have a humpy mustachioed electrician type who needs to check up on the goings-on with some of the building's horny tenants.

What he finds are two different apartments, two different man-pigs, two different hungry holes. In both scenarios the contractor gets his own butt hole serviced prior to poking and prodding around in his willing hosts' back doors.

The tool belt gets in the way, but adds something to the overall ambiance of the scenes.

The very best part of this flick is the unending verbal barrage that spews forth from the last tenant's mouth, enough to make an X-rated radio show. That's nothing compared to the anal work that occurs as he begs for more and bigger dildos to be shoved up his piggy hole (at one point he actually takes two dildos at once).

Unlike many of Kink's stuff, the action is diverse. And very much like many of Kink's stuff, if you like the concept, you'll love the dogged devotion to their special fetishes.

Pigs In Paradise

Imagine a place where some of your wildest fantasies come true. For many gay men with secret desires, the big city isn't big enough unless you're in Amsterdam or San Francisco.

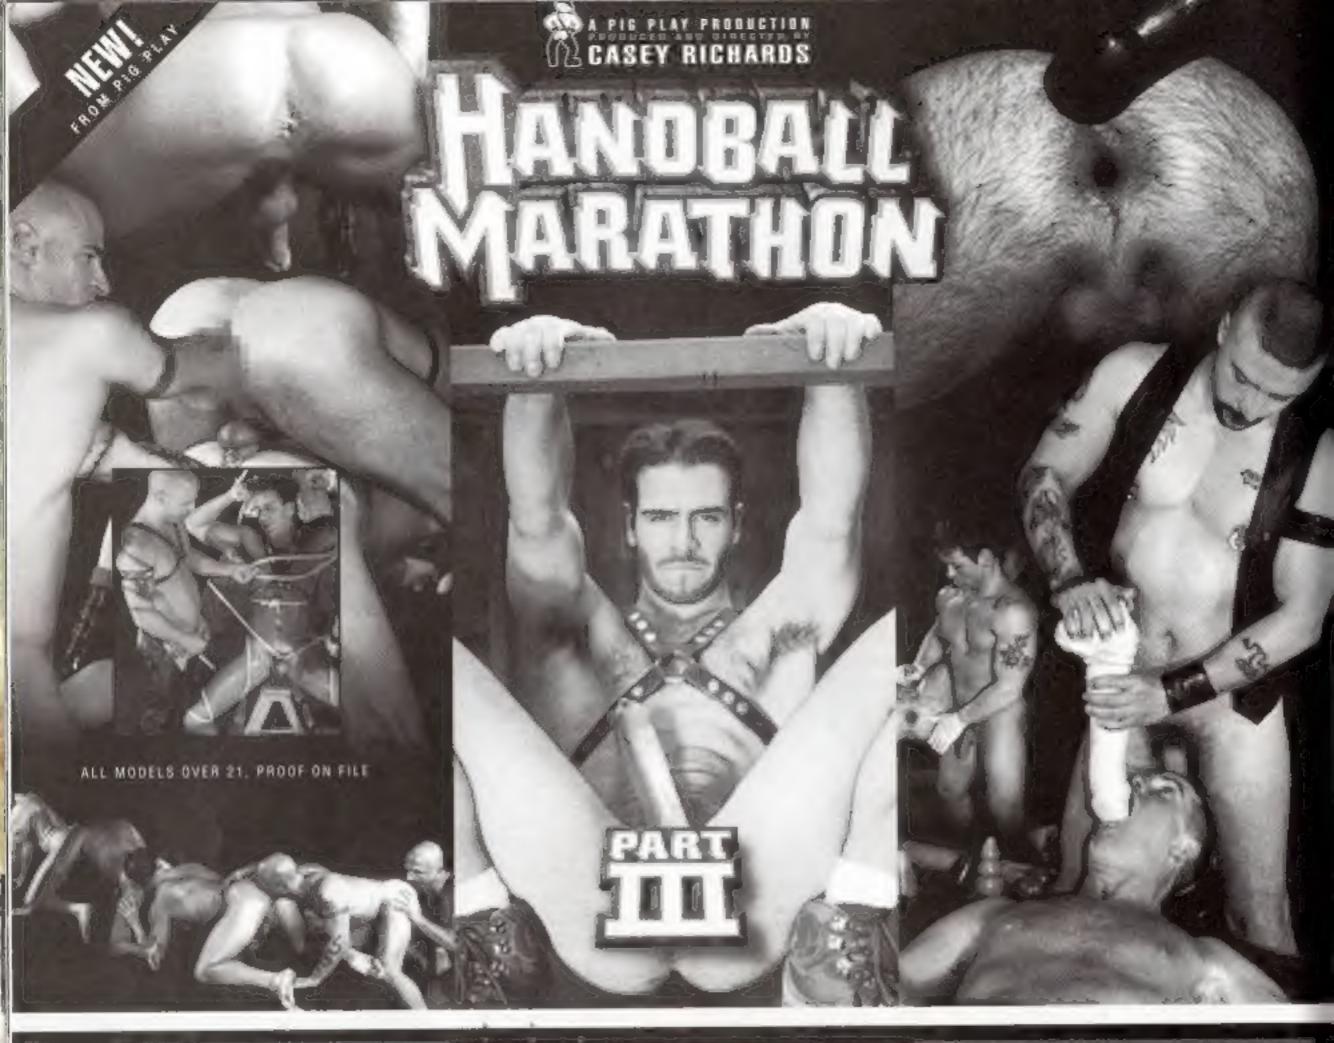

Well I happen to have experienced some of the best sleaze that San Francisco has to offer, and if you believe Mustang Video's latest, then you might be interested in buying shares in the Golden Gate Bridge. Now I'm not saying that Bullpen is a bad porno flick. Quite the contrary.

The Bullpen is a fictitious sex club where beautifully muscled men gather to enact their lusty scenes of lasciviousness (video producers thankfully delete all the nasty trolls that I seem to encounter at these kinds of places).

The props in Bullpen are almost as great as the hard-bodied studs. A guy talking at a pay phone pulls his meaty uncut cock out of his shorts as some-body walks by who decides to lend a helping hand. After some good of fashioned sucking and fucking, they are back at the phone booth for a climaxing call.

There's the usual glory hole stuff and group action, but the cop fantasy was

If you started twitching with a deep-inyour-guts need for more when I reviewed Kink's Ass Work, then buckle up and get ready for the ultimate joy ride with Pig Play Production's Handball Marathon Part II.

The word marathon doesn't even begin to describe the intense action these butt pigs get into with each other You'll see what an asshole is capable of taking as study young Wolf is penetrated by a hot uncut cock belonging to a beefy hairy hunk who then turns around to penetrate newcomer Buck Hammer's gaping hole with his whole forearm!

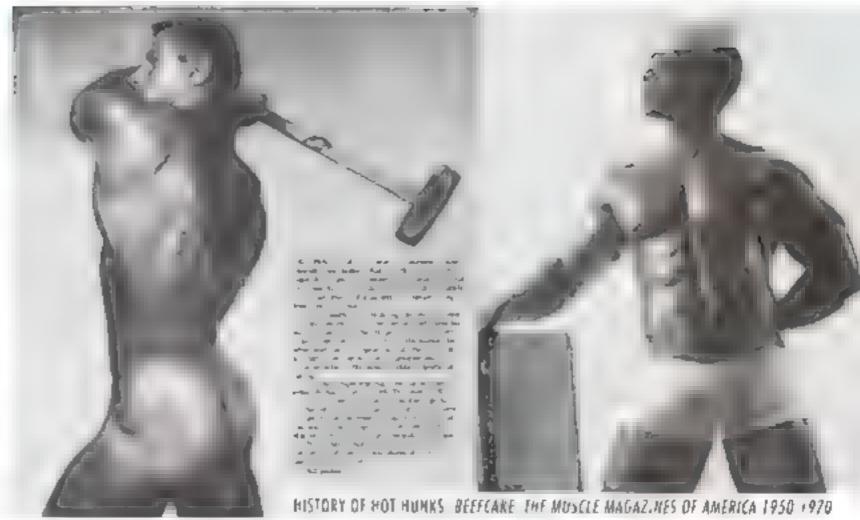

The dodos are huge and get shoved into the deepest cavities in the west. The ass lips are dripping, nasty manifestations of the pigs' passions. There's a little bit of sucking, a little bit of piss, a little bit of minning, a little bit of piss, a little bit of enemas and a whole lot of hole!

This must-see video for fisting enthusiasts also stars Jarod Clark, Anthony Gallow and Tony Dark.

If last year's anniversary of Stonewall interested you, or if you get all worked up when somebody talks about the development of certain human rights, then you'll need a copy of Beefcake: The Muscle Magazines of America 1950–1970, by F. Valentine Hooven, Ill for your gay history collection.

Beefcake chronicles the careers of Bob Mizer, Quaintance, Tom of Finland, Bruce of L.A., and the people who made up the Athletic Model Guild (AMG) and Physique Pictorial. Hooven traces the history of these early publications, billed at first as "sport reviews" and "health journals," and outlines their progression into revealing more of the naked male form.

Like most of the pop culture and media introduced during this decade of conformity, these muscle magazines are now clickes. But even as the nuclear family was reaching its most revered period, muscle magazines were being secretly sold, traded and stashed under mattresses by a very appreading, although solidly closeted, young gay America.

Conservative lawmakers finally lost a long series of censorship trials when in 1968 the picture of a fully naked man was finally declared not pornographic it was then that the physique field expanded into a multi-faceted, billion dollar industry. But none of the little muscle magazines survived the massive changes which occurred after even more graphic erotica became legality possible in America.

Learn more about the subtle charges of an age gone by in a pleasant read of English, German and French.

DRUMMER COVER STORY

A friend of mine was a watch maker, and in his jewelry kit I found a roll of fine gold wire from which I fashioned two small rings. What to use for the piercing? Rifling through drawers found a pession of a wine bottle cork. These was I do this pit in a little lead of such crude and mapping ale.

Everything was praced in a small dish of rubbing alcohol, and I was ready.

First, I cleaned my nipples with more alcohol. Sweating a little, my heart pounding, I removed the pushpin and cork from the dish and dried them on tissues to ding the cork in my left hand I pressed it against the left side of one nipple. I possed the pin point on the opposite side, and taking a John of the pin point of the pin was a that I may have for an entart which rapidly subsited.

The ring still needed to be inserted. Nowadays we use spc. cial need us which the lowery can follow through the piercing but I wash I so rucky To hise! the ring I had to remove the pushpin and then attempt to in anipulate the ring through the freshly made channel Be eve me this can be extremely diff cult and often impossible don't remember how ong t took but eventually managed to get the ring through By this time was feeing a bit I ght headed and needed to lie down My dick had gone imp. and the first wave of pass on had passed but as lay there recovering a warm I igling sensation began to spread from my newly pierced hippie, and my dick began to stir once more. The climax which fo owed was like none I had ever had before

But once I d cum I par icked What had I done? What would people think? A that stuff. No one else of course, had ever done such a thing So I removed the ring. My nipple healed was wonderfully tender for a few days, and the piercing fantasy only grow stronger.

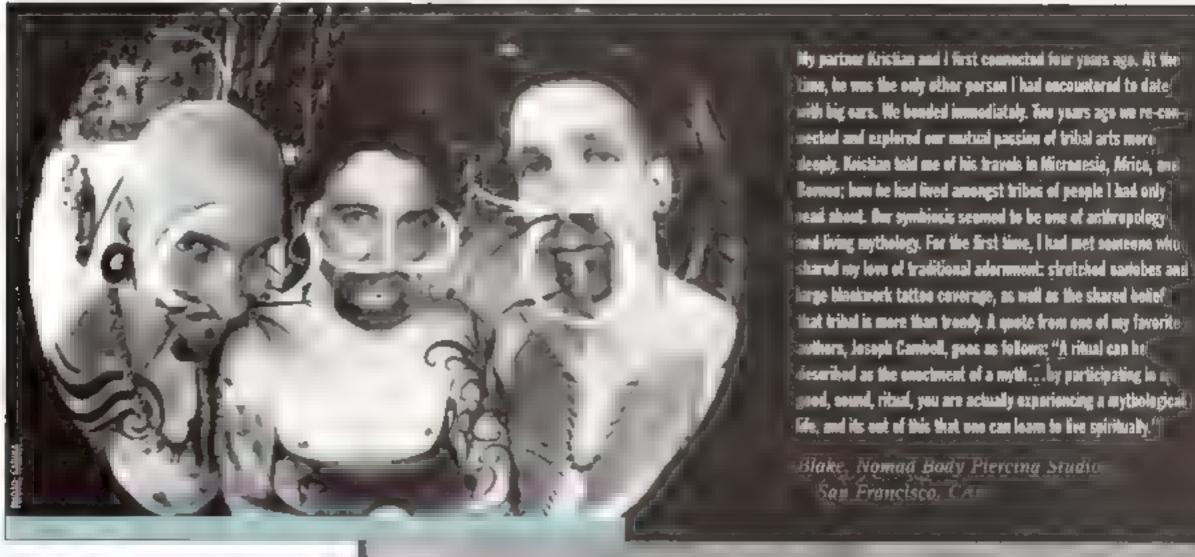

Fortunately not onglaffer this event I met and made friends with a couple of eather guys who introduced me to New York's gay SM scene bought my fishpar of books and motor cycle jacket. One of my new friends pierced my left ear. It felt ike indinary discovered who treaty was

It wasn't ong before I met fernanco one of the icons of the New York eather scene and he had pierced nipples if he d done it there was absolutely no reason why I couldn't pierce in he Which is exactly what I did soon after on another one of those hot weekend afternoons

That is the story of my first three piercings. If the did I suspect that they were to play such a vita part in my life and provide the foundation of my future career. Gauntiet was still seven years in the future.

fateful events, met my piercing mentor Doug Malloy. He was a well-to-do Hollywood business man in his late 50's whose wealth provided the means to pursue his fetish and study its history in exotic locales around the world. With our common interest, we soon became friends.

A guy I was dating wanted me to pierce his nipples, so I called Doug for some pointers on how to do it and to find out where to get jewe ry. He was glad to assist and told me about a ,ewe or who would make something for me. Unfortunately the prices were way out of line, especially by 1975 standards During my New York days I had taken some jewe ry making classes, so I decided to buy a few too s and make the jewery mysaif. is used in some gold alloys as pewelry. Piercing jewe ry is best used which is made of 14k or better gold, surgical steel, hlobium titanium, or teflon

The purpose of the first piece of jewe ry is to hold the layers of tissue on either side of the piercing apart while they heal, without causing excessive nflammation. Healing skin that has been punctured tends to pull itself back together along its lines of cleavage. The pierc ing lowery exerts a force on the skin to reorient the direction in which it heals if the jewelry is taken out too soon, the natural forces of the skin will take over and attempt to close the pierc ng by contract on, sometimes at what seems like ightning speed. Most piercings must be oft namnmum of 6-12 months before they get time off for good behavior

Mid skin redness and a very small amount of discharge are normal, at least in the first week or so. Itching, pink swelling, and clear discharge are signs of allergy; tenderness, pus discharge, streaking, more than a little redness or hard ness of the area around the percing are signs of infection. Allergy can frequently be fixed by getting a different piece of jewelry in the same gauge but different metal, and topical 1% hydrocortisone cream may be helpful

Infections may develop after a piercing due to touching the piercing with dirty hands, touching it with saliva, or pulling on it too early Other no-no's with unhealed piercings are exces sive cleaning (twice a day is adequate, more may destroy new tissue), swimming in lake water or using a hot tub, and trying to enlarge the hole before it has a chance to heal at its current size. Some people feel ant septic creams or ointments are necessary; others feel they may impede healing, Prophylac tic artibiotics are not necessary. and may actually be harmful, taking an antibiotic selects for bacteria in the body which are antibiotic resistant, so if an infection does occur it will be harder to treat.

Although there are some risks to permanent piercing, most of these risks can be minimized with proper preparation and care. Many people find pleasure in their piercings, for widely varying reasons. And untike other permanent body modifications, such as tattoos, an unsatisfactory fresh piercing can be taken out and it will go away.

THE MAGIC OF PIERCING

Fakir Musafar

Body piorsing is more than indiscriminate hele peking. It in more than the casuel ndornment of the hody. where. During the past five years, the desire for body pierong has radiated out at subcultures and into the mainstream. Movie stars, rock stars and models in ads are commonly studded with ear, hipple and navel rings. Why?

Other cultures have a rich trad tion of body piercing, a piace, a meaning, social sanctions Western Judeo-Christian culture does not. It is based on some very specific blases about the body, its use and ownership. feel the current pierding trend is essentially "borrowed" from other cultures to fill some unfulhand need of those of us who hear the sound of a different drummer. We, the pierced, have rejected strong Judeo-Christian programming. To us, our bodies belong to us. They do not belong to some distant god sit ting on a throne; or to that god's priest or spokesperson or to a mother or father or spouse, or to the state or it s monarch, ruler or dictator, or to social institutions of the mil tary, education, correctional or medical establishment. And the kind of language used to describe our behavior (self-mutiation) is in itself a negative and prejudicial form of control

So why do it? What is behind the powerful urge to express our inner feelings through the body by piercing and other forms of physical medification? In other cultures and tribal socelies where there are estab ushed body piercing traditions, the practice is an integral part of a greater ritual - a ritual filled with deep meaning for individual participants and the community After years of study, I ve Identified some of the universal reasons behind body piercing ritua (1) rite-of passage from one phase of life to another; (2) creation of life-long peer bonding (3) sign of respect or honor for e ders and ancestors: (4) sym bol of status, belonging or courage; (5) initiation into greater mysteries or unseen worlds (6) protection from evil s), ret energies, (7) opening for beneficial spirit energies: (B rebalancing of body and/or spir it energies, (9) healing of diseased body, self and others (10) healing of wounded psyche self and others; (11) healing of tribal disorder and creation of tribal bonding, and (12) tribal/community connection to greater/higher forces (especially in times of chaos or disaster) forms of a plercing ritual may vary from culture to culture but there is some commonanty: the body is penetrated; pain is endured; blood is shed; some thing special happens. For example, in many societies of Africa, South America and the Pacific ritua piercing of the ears, nose, lips or genita's a lows passage from childhood to adulthood. Later piercings give entry to warrior clans motherhood or e derhood. In India, puls ic piercing rituals are conducted on hely days like Thaipusam or Chid, Mari. The body is skewered with needles or hooks. Fruits, metal pots metal bails and other objects are attached to piercings, after which devotees dance to ecstasy for hearing or inner il um na

By now most of the societies where body piercing used to have a place, a tradition have "ost their "pieroing magic." But we, the dominant Western Society are just finding ours. We are borrowing some of it, we are creating sunse of it. But the urgefrom which it springs is the same - some deep. fildden welor archetype that a timeless and universal. I respect and encourage this trend to seek identity, healing and transformation through body piercing. I feel t is healthy for our modern society - a courterbalance to much that has gone wrong. When you find the appropriate person and place for a body piercing, the magic is still there!

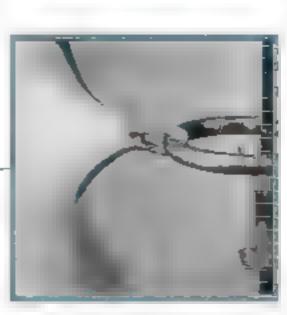

The ritual of Kayadi originated. in Southern India and is pract ticed in the U.S. by advanced SM players to achieve an 🛙 ecstatic state, Between 60 and 100 spears are becaly attached to a cage which is: affixed in the participant at the waist and shoulders. Penetration of the skin increases as the perticipant. moves through the citue). 🖰 Marine Britis (Com)

Fakir as he appeared for his "bodymod coming out" at the First international Tattoo Convention in Reno, Nevada, 1978.

Fotoskin piercings tike this have a tradition in many cultures. In Roman times foreskins of alayes and captured males were pierced several times as shown here and a "Fibula" (similar to a small belt buckle) was welded on to make clastity. The iten males of Borneo were also plerced to wear an "oetang" rod which drew attention to the member, and again, insurance of chastity when sealed shut.

Instribal societies with a piercing tradition, ears are not only pierced but often emarged to hold plugs or tubes. This style has become a familiar adaptation now seen, argong Modern Primitives like the one in this photo.

Fakir loves nipple play so thirty years ago he pierced his nipples precisely at the base. Over the years, these piercings were slowly enlarged until the tissue fras expanded 1500 times. Now finger-sized loops offer more nipple to play with?

Fakir Musafar, shaman and master piercer, is known worldwide for his research and practice of primitive body decoration and ritual.

BRUMMER FEATURE FICTION

met boy joey at a major Leather event about two years ago. The Lonly seemingly problematic part of the scenario was that boy joey was in tow. His Daddy, Bob had a good, tight Daddy-like lead on boy. The lead, however, was not on a collar, it exited the button flap on boy's 501's. Of course this screamed P/A to me, being the piercing freak that I am. As the elevator slowly rose, fortunately stopping at every floor, the cruise became more and more interesting. I cruised boy, he cruised me. I cruised Daddy, he cruised me back. When I commented on enjoying the lead he had boy on, Daddy offered up the lead to me. Not being famous for subtlety, I yanked the little fucker over and stuck my tongue down his throat. Moments later there were three tongues in three very wet, sloppy mouths.

We went to my room and I proceeded to order boy to remove his clothing, stating that he doesn't get to wear clothes when he's with me. His Daddy smiled approvingly and nodded his consent, boy had the evident P/A along with six scrotum rings. I myself, have a P/A and ten scrotum rings, so I imagined that wonderful clinking sound of ring against ring while I fucked him in full view of his Daddy Daddy proceeded to get undressed and was as well pierced as his boy. I took a rawhide strip, ran it through boy's scrotum rings and then through Dad's, ultimately tying their balls together. I then told Dad (not asked, told!) to fuck his boy for me while I began to torture his nipples (Dad's, of coursel) Well, the sound of the rings clinking against one another, my rings jangling as I beat off watching them and Dad's butt up in the air while fucking his boy led me to only one conclusion . . . that Daddy needed to be fucked while fucking his boy. So, being the benevolent man I am, I plunged right into Daddy (the operative word here being plunged). As Daddy pulled on boy's tit rings, the sound of their nuts smack ing up against one anothers and the sound of my piercings hitting up against Daddy's ass got us all to that place we were working so hard to get to, at the same time. I pulled out of boy's Dad, ripped off the nubber and shot all over Daddy Bob's butt, just ashe pulled out and shot all over boy's well tortured tits.

This was the beginning of a wonderful weekend. With the three of us being such inhibited people, it took time for us/to really warm up. /But hey. warm up we did. The next morning after appropriately throwing them both out after I was done with them, my hotel phone rang. They wanted to know if Daddy would have coffee with the BOYS .. yes, plural ... as in BOYS! Well, a whole new scene flew into my head before I had time to answer. "Yes, of course. Be here in 15 minutes, coffee will be waiting, boys." When Daddy Boy and boy arrived at my room I answered the door wrapped in a towel, looking ready to go into the shower. Of course I knew that I had no intentions of showering before I had them both serve me, nor did I think they would have preferred a freshly showered smell to permeate perfectly good sweat. I ordered both Boy and boy to undress, each one going to a different corner, hitting their knees until I was ready to give them further instructions. I had my coffee, lit a cigarette, laid down on the bed and had them down to his nipples, I remembered how sore they must have been from the night before. So, I began to bite and nibble, just a little too hard. The more boy moaned and thanked me, the harder I pumped his Daddy's mouth. I then stopped working on Boy and decided we needed a "change in scene."

I told Boy how beautiful he would look with one more scrotum piercing than his boy. Boy looked at me with fear and glee in his eyes and once again replied "thank you Sir." I told boy to sit at the top of the bed and cradle his Daddy's head between his legs. I proceeded to wash my hands and put on a pair of latex gloves. With a razor I gently shaved the hair around the area to be pierced. I rubbed Betadine on Boy's scrotum, amazed at how hard his dick had become. I went into my attaché case and removed a marking pen, a sealed and autoclaved pair of forceps and a brand new 10 gauge piercing needle. I carefully marked the entry and exit points of the piercing, checking with Boy to see how he was doing and if he was ready to "give it up to me " He replied "yes, Sir." [ gently clamped his scrotum with the forceps and instructed boy to plant a deep, wet, hot kiss on his Daddy. As they kissed, I pierced Boy's scrotum, knowing the instantaneous endorphin rush he would have. A slight moan and Boy smiled the biggest, broadest, happiest smile. I took a 10 gauge circular barbell and inserted it quickly and painlessly, guiding the new jewelry following the exiting needle. Goddamn, it was fucking beautiful. I discarded the needle in a Sharps container, put the instruments in bleach solution and cleaned off Boy's scrotum, boy smiled as big as Boy. I imagine my smile was no less intense. I had Boy lie there in a very happy daze and let him watch while I had boy finish me off. After all, I had just worked pretty hard and needed to release some of that built up

was eighteen and living on my own. I didn't plan on going to college, not Lthat I had much choice. My father gave me two things for graduation - a job with a friend of his who ran a roofing company, and a month's rent and security deposit. My dad would shit a brick if he realized that his gift introduced me to Dominick Testa - my foreman, an ex-con, and an all around prick who loved nothing more than busting ass. Nick was a thirty-something, bulky six footer. Every time he hent over to slide me a bundle of shingles, I could see all the way to his pubes. He didn't wear anything under his loose coveralls because it was hot on those damn roofs. He had shaggy, dusty black hair and the hottest fucking green eyes.

I loved looking at his sweat drenched chest, and down over his flat broad belly. Whenever he squatted in front of me I could see a bulge straining against the fabric of his thigh.

Despite his good looks Nick was a prick. The crew was filled with misfits because nobody was willing to work with him long enough to get properly trained. Halfway through the summer I was made assistant foreman because I had been on his crew longer than anyone else. For an extra dollar an hour I had to put away all the equipment at the end of the day.

"Hey, asshole, you forgot this," Nick said. He slammed an open bucket of roofing cement onto the floor causing the sticky tar to slop over the side of the bucket.

I grabbed a couple of rags and tried to wipe it up before it reached the floor. I d worked with him for a month and a half and it was always, "Hey, asshole" or "come here, Sim" or "do this, Red." I wasn't sure he even knew my name.

When I stood up, I was dizzy from the fumes of the tar. It took me a minute to see that he had shut the door of the storage trailer.

"You know what I like to do on Friday nights?" he asked while reaching into the little fridge to grab a beer. "I like to spend a little time with my assistant foreman," he sneered. He downed half the can in a few quick swallows. He'd been riding my ass all week.

"I've got things to do," I said.

"You're right. And one of those things is make good on all the fuck'n prick teasing you've been doin!" His hand was slowly pulling down his zipper. Against my better judgment my gaze riveted onto his crotch.

"Uh, what d'ya mean?" I managed to spit out, when he stopped just short of pulling his goods into full view.

I should have said, "Fuck you, asshole. I'm outta here."

A lecherous smile curled across his tips and I noticed his scar through the heavy stubble. It reminded me that I was alone with an ex-con, who was standing between me and the only exit. I became visibly flushed. I knew what was up.

"You want to see what you been lickin' your chops over all week?" he teased as his hand fell again to his fly. He started towards me but I didn't move.

"If I pull this out I'm usin' it." I watched his hand move around inside his denun overalls. He shrugged off the top half so it fell in front of his crotch. He just stood there stroking his cock. As the overalls inched their way down his hips, a thick forest of black pubic hair came into view.

The only place I'd ever seen cocks that close was in the showers in high school. Video images and limp cocks in the locker room didn't prepare me for this fucking huge hard cock.

"I know you're twenty-one, but I think you're still cherry," he snickered. A shit-eating grin appeared as I nodded my head in agreement. His cock twitched in response. He laughed and downed the rest of his beer. He grabbed two more cans.

"Drink that down, boy, You're gonna need it."

As I took a swig, his hand swung between my legs and grabbed my crotch. I fell back against one of the workbenches, trying to get away from his death-grip on my nuts.

"I said, drink that down," he commanded. He tightened his grasp to emphasize his point. "My boys do what they're toid, I'll let go when the beer is gone."

I chugged as fast as I could while he squeezed my nuts through my dirty denims and jockeys. I drained the can realizing that my cock had grown hard making the pain even more intense. He tossed my empty can aside and clamped his mouth over my own. He pried my legs far apart with his construction boots while he raped my mouth with his tongue. His big thighs crushed my swollen nuts. While he sucked and bit my neck, I rode his hard quads. I loved it all, that hot ache that mixed pain and pleasure. My cock had never been so hard. I could feel my nuts squash against his hard muscles, and roll around as I ground into him. The whole fucking scene felt so good I almost came in my pants. He must have realized how close I was because he backed away.

"Oh, no. We're going to make a night of this," he promised.

The nde to the motel was excruciatingly quiet, I was nervous, but this was it, I was going to get fucked. I never hungered for anything so badly in my life. His cock was huge but I didn't care. I wanted all of it in me.

I couldn't take my eyes off those sculpted muscles; flexing, sliding, and moving against each other while he stripped. He was covered with black hair. Veins snaked the entire length of his half hard cock punctuated with a dnp of gleaming pre-cum which oozed out the end. His fucking tube of muscle hung halfway to his knees. He let me drink in the sight of him stroking himself slowly making it nice and hard. As the engorged purple head started arching toward the ceiling hot cum dripped from the slot, it seemed like his cock was throbbing in sync with his pulse. I quickly kicked off my boots and shucked my clothes in several awkward gestures. As I finished pulling my jock"I like this tight ass." I knew he liked the feel of my slick hot hole squeezing his finger. He drove in another and then a third. He used the thumb of the same hand to pinch me while the other hand slapped my ass cheeks.

My cock was pinned between my stomach and his thigh; sliding in a sheen of pre-cum. His fat cock was pounding against the middle of my chest. It kept prodding me leaving more steamy fuck juice with each impact.

He was touching a place inside me that made me want to please him, desperate and hot. I arched my back so he could get more fingers inside. He slapped my ass and added another probing digit, in between slaps of my ass he would reach back and yank on my balls, if I held myself just right and rocked back against his prodding I could feel it burn its way to the tip of my steadily dripping shaft

I realized it was fucking time. Everything he had done to me had his cock like a squeezing fist.

"Open up, boy," he slapped my back with his hard hand. His hand gripped my shoulder and pulled my entire body towards him as I tried to pull away. The slap had hurt like hell, my ass burned, and I was paralyzed by his vice-like grip on my shoulder.

"Let it all go, little asshole." He was right. I let all the hurt go, let it flood my senses, and it turned from pain to pleasure. I felt my insides being forced slowly around his hard meat. He threw all his weight into his relentless pounding, flattening me to the bed. I didn't dare let go of the headboard. My head knocked against the headboard and I thought his cum would pour out my mouth.

His broad chest and shoulders covered my entire body. I was engulfed by a desire to let Nick do whatever he wanted. My butt hole slowly started to melt around him and I flopped helplessly like a rag doll. I was totally eys off I realized he had sprawled out on the bed. My mouth started to water at the thought of lapping his dark stiff nipples. I sidled up to the edge of the bed.

REALIZED IT WAS FUCKING TIMIL EVERYTHING HE HAD DONE TO ME HAD GONE RIGHT TO HIS GOOK A TRIED TO ECRAMBLE AWAY BUT FROZE WHEN I FELT THAT CRIP ON MY HUTS AGAIN. EWEAT BROKE OUT ACROSS MY BACK.

He gathered my dick and balls together in his big callused hand and pulled me down onto him so my nose was buried between his hairy balls.

"Suck hard, I want to feel it." As his ball busting grip tightened I'd slurp one of his meaty balls deep into my anxious mouth. The harder I chewed on his balls, the harder he milked me. He stretched my nuts as far as he could.

I reached around, trying to loosen his grasp. Nick quickly gathered my flailing hands in his free one.

"I don't think so," he grunted. He slowly sat us so I lay pinned across his lap.

"I want you right where you are. I'll bet your ass is primed. All you guys love to spread your cheeks for Nick, don't you?" I heard him spit and then he drove one his fingers deep in my ass.

gone right to his cock. I tried to scramble away but froze when I felt that grip on my nuts again. Sweat broke out across my back.

"Put your hands here," he demanded coldly as he placed each one of my hands on the head board

"I don't want to see them fucking move," he ordered, I could hear him greasing up his cock. I looked over my shoulder and watched his hand move up and down the gleaming stalk. He looked like a rutting bull.

My insides cringed when he propped the bulging head against my ass. He wiped his greasy hands across my ass cheeks.

"Hold on tight," he warned

"Fuck!" I said to myself slowly over and over. His cock pushed against my virgin asshole, It hurt, it burned as it forced its way inside. I dipped my back and spread my cheeks wider, welcoming him up my middle. When he stopped to shift his position, I could feel my sphincter trying to snap shut. Each spasm came down on the head of wrapped up in the raw pleasure his dick was giving me.

"Yeah, fuck me Fuck me hard,"

"You want that cock, eh?" Nick laughed.

"Yes, I fucking want it all," I screamed in response, jizz shot out of my dick. "Shoot your hot load in me," I begged

We ended up making a full night of it. Nick screwed me on a regular basis. Every few weeks I could tell it was going to happen by how nasty he treated me at work. I responded by trying to please him which only made him nastier. I didn't mind because I realized that his nastiness is what I like about him He always made it hot, nasty and painful.

He announced his complete disinterest approximately three months later. "Nothing personal," he said, "you're just not cherry enough anymore."

"So? The fucking point of all this?"
my boyfriend Hank asked more than a little exasperated. We were sitting in our favorite bar.

DRUMMER FEATURE FICTION

"The point is I need that kind of hard driving sex as a regular thing in my life and I don't think you're up to it "

Hank is a little bit too much like me Which means it is hard to get him mad, and hard to be mad at him. It's one of the things I really like about him. Neither of us really sweats the small stuff. He was pretty damn comfortable to be around. But, it just didn't seem to completely click in the sack. I had justified not being completely satisfied by the notion that Nick was probably an impossible act to follow. I had tried, but I couldn't seem to continue any longer

I couldn't live without that intensity. I didn't get a chance to explain myself because Hank interrupted my thoughts.

"So that's it huh? You like it a little rough and don't think I'm up to it?" He poured the rest of his beer into his glass

"You really are an asshole you know that? Why didn't you just ask? Why didn't you just tell me? You're willing to give it all up over that without even talking about it?" He his balls. I went into his crotch like a drained his beer. Although I doubted he'd cause a scene I had decided to break it off with Hank in a bar. Now 1 felt a little guilty for telling him this whole thing in public

"Let's go home," I offered

"I need to make a call first," he said worrying me.

I warmed up the truck and several minutes later he followed. We drove home in silence. When we arrived at the apartment the door was not only unlocked but ajar. I turned to Hank concerned. Until I saw a grin creep across his face.

"I want you to meet an old friend of mine," he said as we stepped into the apartment. His friend was anything but old. Hank introduced us and then walked over to Anthony and whispered something in his ear. Whatever he said Anthony responded by sizing me up They both started stripping off their clothes.

"Hey," Anthony said, "Don't fall behind or you'll get left out." When I saw the length of his cock I reached for my belt. Before I could kick off my shoes, Hank had aiready dropped to his knees and started bringing Anthony's monster up to size. He had never sucked me off that way. That's when the light bulb went off in my head.

> Hank needed the same thing I did. He needed someone to put him into an animal state of lust just like I did.

My cock grew hard while I drank in the scene. Hank opened wide and choked it all down. It was more than a mouthful. My own saliva started running. I wanted the whole gleaming, spit-shined weight of his fat dick in my mouth.

was on my knees, going for dog in heat, inhaling and lapping up his ball sacks. I sucked in his scent and settled in to chow down on his big nuts. He pulled my head off his sack and I looked up quizzically. His cock was massive, and I could feel the heat of it on my face. I looked over his flat belly, up his big wide pecs to see him looking at the both of us.

"Who wants this big boy up his ass?" He only nodded when Hank told him I did.

"Well, what do you think Hank? Is he really ready or does he need some prep work?"

Hank got to his feet while I remained on my knees.

"He says he likes it hard. Let's see how hard." He held my chin in his hand and looked into my eyes. "I want him to hurt you for me."

DRUMMER FEATURE FICTION

My ass was their play ground for the rest of the night. Anthony slapped my cheeks while opening and stretching my ass. He tied me down with just one long cord, wrapped around my balls and tethered to a ring in the floor. When I couldn't open up enough for him, he got rougher. My ass was burning, my cock dripping and my balls aching as I strove to get off his fingers.

Hank sat on a chair in front of me

Every time opened my eyes all I could see was Hank's cock and balls. He bent his cock down and held it inches from my lips. He kept teasing me trying to see how much humiliate l'd myself, begging for cock. I looked up at Hank, His eyes were glazed over, his jaw set at an angle. He was seeing and feeling what I was going through. The only thing keeping him from fucking my face was Anthony's orders to remain where he was. Then there were four fingers going through me. My ass felt rubbery - hot and elastic. Anthony open-palm-whaled my ass repeatedly.

"Go on, go for that cock." Pow! "Go on, show me how hard you like it, pussy boy." I strained every muscle in my body to get at Hank's cock. Sweat rolled off me. My ass was empty at the moment, but it hurt like hell. My cock jerked and rose to its hardest. All the pain and humiliation converged and took me to the place I wanted to be

I heard Anthony say, "Let him taste your cock, Hank."

Hank's cock slid down my throat as Anthony squeezed my nuts.

I don't know where I went when be

As much as he'd loosened me up, it still hurt. I had nowhere to go. I wal lowed in cock. I could feel Anthony's all the way up to Hank's and Hank's all the way down to his. They used me like a piece of meat and I was loving every aching minute of it.

Anthony was a true professional. He had brought me to a special place and he wanted me to stay there. I needed to come so badiy, but he held me where he could hurt me more. With his fuck pole buried deep into my guts, he leaned over, reached under me, and started on my nipples - pulling, squeezing and pinching until the sharp biting pain shot all the way to my cock head

"Hold still for Anthony," Hank scolded. Anthony twisted my tit harder

"Ahh, yeah, come to papa," he coaxed. Just before everything went white I realized that no part of me was touching the floor. I was pinned mid-

Anthony continued pummeling me with his iron bar while torturing my tits. My cock slapped against my stomach as I gagged on Hank's. I couldn't hold out any longer and had one of the most searing series of come shots I'd ever felt. How my battered nuts were able to churn out load after load is something I'll never figure out I sprayed all over my gut, chest and chin. I was on the verge of passing out when I felt them shoot their thick loads into each end of me.

I'm still with Hank. We see Anthony once a month. The only thing we fight about is who gets to serve first. The fights don't get serious because there's plenty of cock for two slaves.

Homophobia In Cyberspace

FRANCISCO

Gay representatives condemned recent media coverage of a gay teenager who ran away from his Seattle home to visit a friend he met on the Internet. Critics charge that biased and inaccurate news reports fueled anti-gay paranola and served to perpetuate the image of gay men as sexual predators intent on seducing younger males. They also note that such distorted coverage contributes to efforts to censor computer bulletin boards.

The stories that drew the tre of both gay organizations and on-line services catering to the gay community involved the temporary disappearance of then 15-yearold Daniel Montgomery, whose on-line buddy, 17year-old Damien Starr, had sent money to pay for a bus ticket to visit him in San Francisco. Initial news reports played up authorities' and the boy's parents' assumption that Starr was the pseudonym of an adult who surfed the Internet looking for teenage boys. Many newspapers, radio and TV stations passed on the assumption as fact. Others reported it as all-but-certain speculation

In truth, Starr turned out to be exactly who he said he was, a 17-year-old boy living with other young people in a San Francisco flat. Yet even after this was revealed and Montgomery was reunited with his parents, at least one San Francisco TV station continued to refer to the story as an example of gay adults luring teenage boys into sex via the computer.

Gay leaders particularly criticized comments attributed to Montgomery's father that a network of gay men had organized on-line efforts to recruit underage hoys.

"I resent the assumption, personally, that gays are more likely to victimize children," said Karen Wickre, co-founder of Digital Queers, a San Francisco-based organization of gay men and lesbians in the high-tech industry, in an interview with The Sentinel, a weekly gay newspaper in the city.

Other critics pointed out that, while the media appeared eager to jump on a sensational story about supposed gay sex criminals, few bothered to investigate Montgomery's parents' claims of a loving and supportive home. The boy, who had come out to his parents shortly before his disappearance, told reporters he had run away partly because his father had not accepted him. While the parents, in a televised press conference after Daniel was found, expressed regret they had not been more understanding, there has been little follow-up to learn if the situation has improved.

THE STATE OF

GWM, 46yo, 6', 1854, wishes to most people who are into heavy bondage, breath control &

Various commentators noted that gay teenagers have far less to fear from on-line sexual predators than from their own families. As one gay man wrote in a letter to the editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, "I would like to suggest that the real tragedy...is in the fact that there are thousands upon thousands of gay, lesbian and bisexual youth in this country who are mistreated and disowned by their families, shunned and attacked by their peers, ostracized by their churches and often kicked out of their homes - or choose to leave home because they feel so much pressure to repress their sexuality and stay in the closet."

In a subsequent article in the same newspaper, Digital Queers member Dave Ford described on-line conversations with gay teenagers who described how much they had been helped by being able to talk with other gay people, adults as well as teenagers, via computer. It enabled them to deal with feelings of being wrong or different. In an article in the New York Times, writer Trip Gabriel related an account of a lonely gay teenager in Texas who received more than a hundred supportive replies to his on-line query wondering if there were others who shared his sense of feeling like "the only gay person on the planet." Another boy told the writer

Mr. Drummor Roundup - Part 1. As this issue of international brammer next to press, five contestants had been chosen so far to campate in the international Mr. Brammer contest to be held in San Francisco on September 23. The three contestants shown here are: (left to right) John Bearedes, Mr. Golf Coast Brammer of Houston, Texas; Alvin Robinson, Mr. Great Lakes Brummer of Madison, Wisconsin; and Jim Gan, Mr. Beaert Plains, Brummer. The more contestants are shown on page 63. (Photos by Mr. Marcus) a man he had contacted over the computer had dissuaded him from committing surcide. Wrote Gabriel, "Along with on-line meetings of alcoholics and support groups for the parents of terminally ill children, the sites for gay and lesbian youth are the source of some of the most stirring stories in cyberspace."

While some of the teens confirmed they had encountered adults on-line who appeared to be trying to seduce or exploit them, they claimed it was rare. Much more common, they said, were "good-hearted" people who gave them encouragement and support.

Despite hundreds of accounts of gay teenagers being helped by computer dialogues, gay spokespeople say the rare stories of possible criminal behavior are the ones that get the widest and most sensational coverage. Because of this, they warn, we can expect ever more pressure to impose stringent regulations on what goes out into cyberspace.

British Tabloid Attacks Bondage Class

LONDON

According to the Pink Paper, a weekly gay newspaper, a sensationalistic article in the British tabloid press on a weekend bondage class sponsored by Scottish AIDS Monitor in Glasgow has drawn the ire - and fire - of gay and AIDS activists. It also prompted the privately funded AIDS organization, which the tabloid erroneously described as funded by public grants, to lodge a formal complaint with the British Press Complaints Commission. In addition, Peter Scott, chair of Gay Men Fighting AIDS and facilitator of the class, reported he was considering legal action.

The Pink Paper says the story in the Scottish edition of the tabloid News of the World claimed class participants, referred to as "slobbering perverts," practiced flogging one another in a "vile bondage course funded by taxpayers," The article was reportedly peppered with such terms as "weirdo," "perverts," "grey-haired lecher," and "dirty dozen." More significantly, the tabloid alleged Scott left one participant suspended from two hooks and promised to demonstrate "the potentially fatal practice of neck bondage."

According to the gay news weekly, which reports SAM has refuted all charges, the News of the World article violated four PCC guidelines. Scott told the Pink Paper he and SAM also raised questions regarding the use of an undercover reporter to get the story. Scott said not only had the reporter lied about his identity and interest in

"I can think of nothing more evil and perverted than infiltrating an education course designed to save people's lives, then pretending it was all done from some moral standpoint," Scott was quoted as saying.

Dungeon Gathering at U. of London

The University of London is usually known for its gatherings of high-powered intellectuals. but OTI Saturday, Sept. 9, it will host another group of high powered types at "Dungeon in the Sky." Sponsored by SM Gays, a non-profit social and educational group for gay men interested in consensual sexual sadomasochism, the event is described as Europe's largest SM gathering. It is open to all - gay men, lesbians, bisexuals and heterosexuals - as long as you are over 16.

In addition to more than 20 workshops on such topics as CPR for beginners, getting SM friendly health care, Japanese rope bondage and politically incorrect fantasies, the event will feature the Bizarre Bazaar, Fetters Bondage Garden, a boot shine-athon, the (purportedly) first Human SM showdog trials and Flog-'95.

Primetime - Almost

For all the concern about a return to Victorian prodery on the airwaves, it was Victoria's consort Prince Albert, in the flesh (literally), who made an unexpected appearance on a Palo Alto, CA cable TV program. Viewers who tuned in to any of several repeat broadcasts of "Gen-X," a locally produced amateur variety show, were treated to a graphic demonstration of a San Jose man getting his cocked pierced and inserted with a stainless steel ring. For those not in the know, the embellishment is colloquially referred to as a Prince Albert, because rumor holds that the bearded and portly gentleman — a bear before his time — who fathered the good queen's many children sported one.

The program also featured less controversial piercings, including an ear, a tongue and a cheek (the facial sort), as well as tattooing. "Gen-X" co-producers Danny Briones, a San Jose optician, and Ray Gutierrez, a Sunnyvale courier, said they anticipated irate response to the broadcast but received very few complaints. On the other hand, they reported, several viewers called to find out where they could get piercing done

Male Rape Gains Legitimacy

In a case that made English legal history, a judge sentenced a man to life imprisonment for attempting to rape an 18-year-old male. The judgment is the first made under the country's recently passed Criminal Justice Act, which among other changes to British law, equalized the status of males and females.

Andrew Richards, a 26year-old Welshman with two previous convictions for sexual offenses against young girls, one only seven, was charged with assault and attempted rape of a teenage boy who was staying at a West London hostel. Although the boy admitted he had initially agreed to exchange sex for money because he was destitute, he said Richards assaulted him in Regent Park when he changed his mind. The judge said the naiveté of the boy, who hailed from rural Hertfordshire, made him easy prey for the defendant

Prior to last year's enactment of the act, male rape was not deemed as serious a crime as rape of a female in the United Kingdom. The new laws also do not provide separate categories based on whether the victim and perpetrator are homosexual or heterosexual.

that Canada's higher age of consent for anal sex unconstitutionally discriminates against gays, reported Toronto's Globe and Mail. The Court said section 159 of the Criminal Code violates the equality-rights section of Canada's Charter of Rights and Freedoms by discriminating based on both age and sexual opentation. The government argued the law was needed to slow HIV transmission

In a written opinion, Justice Rosalle Abella said the section "arbitrarily disadvantages gay men by denying to them until they are 18 a choice available at the age of 14 for those who are not gay, namely their choice of sexual expression with a consenting partner."

Abella said section 159 "perpetuates rather than narrows the gap for a historically disadvantaged group - gay men; it does so arbitrarily and stereotypically, and is therefore a discriminatory provision which infringes the guarantee of a foreign country. The equality."

Sensuality Weds Pornography

EroSpirit Research Institute of Oakland, CA has released several new videotapes, compact disks and books designed to encourage sexual and erotic experimentation. Among them are two sexually explicit videos by Chicago sex worker Josh Schafer, When I'm Hard, I'm Smarter and Erotic Explorer attempt to wed sensuality and pornography in new

Included in When I'm Hard, I'm Smarter is a lecture and demonstration on masturbation as a "learning experience." About Erotic Explorer, Schafer said, "the first sexual revolution was about the freedom to have sex. The second sexual revolution is about treating sex as an art form."

Also among the new releases is "Making Love for the Whole World to See: Interviews with Sacred Intimates and Sexual Healers," in which EroSpirit founder Joseph Kramer talks with ten gay and bisexual men who regard themselves as sexual healers. One of the men interviewed, Martin Raffaei[cq] Siems, recently published a book in Germany titled (in translation) "Love, Desire, and Ecstacy: A Spiritual Erotic Bodywork Program for Gay Men.

Kramer is also founder of Body Electric, a massage school in Oakland for gay men. He is traveling and teaching erotic touch, massage and healing classes in the Nether-lands, Germany and Switzerland through 1996.

EroSpirit is also accepting submissions through Sept. 17 for its ErosCommuity

Pickel Peckers

TULSA

Most artificial cocks on the market are long (sometimes very) and straight, A new one from the mail order firm Renard, Inc. is curved almost to the shape of the letter "j". Designed not for pleasure but for measure. the "Pickel," as it is so quaintly named, slips over your own presumably notparticularly-large member to make it look as if you're really packing. Traditionally, men have made do with socks, but the Pickel's lifelike shape, intended to imitate a massive cock at rest, makes it look like the real thing. Sadly, the device does not come with advice on how to account for the discrepancy between what others think they see and what they get.

Since the Renard catalog consists primarily of underwear with extra-large pouches for men who genuinely are hung, perhaps the Pickel is a ploy to boost sales of their other merchandise. If you're interested, you can write to Renard at PO.B 700206, Tulsa, OK 74170 for information. ■

Passion Or Fashion

Why has piercing gone mainstream?

BY M. KAYE

Seeking an extra hole or two?

On the surface it seems a simple question. Modern technology combined with rampant media exposure has allowed all people to join the ranks of the bodily manipulated.

On closer inspection two paths of motivation emerge. The first is the crowd who wants that ring, but could care less about the process or significance of getting pierced— they want what they know: a mall experience. Longtime San Francisco jeweler and piercer Raelyn Gallina says, "Piercing used to involve thought, planning, bringing meaning and ritual to people's lives. Now, it is a fad. The meaning is watered down, so although there are still those who are part of a greater tribe, they are lost in the surge of the fad."

The purely aesthetic value of piercing accounts for one motivation, but not the other. The second group gravitates toward piercings and other forms of body manipulation to satisfy deeper personal needs.

In the era of high technology we are inundated with gadgets. In the last ten years answering machines, teller automated machines, VCRs, computers, pagers, cellular phones, microwave ovens, etc. have all increased in popularity. They feed on the desire for convenience. They also move us toward a world governed by machine/human interacrather than tion. human/human interaction. In an age where contact with one's body fades into a haze of virtual reality, piercing brings us back into ourselves.

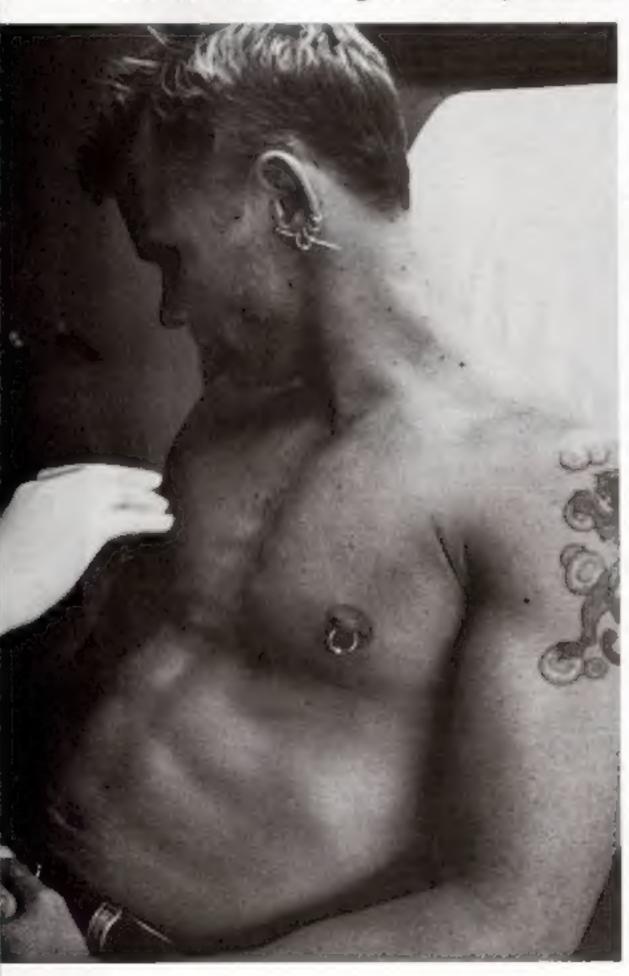

When we seek to deny our corporeal selves in favor of mechanized interactions, our instincts rebel. Piercing counteracts technological isolation. It serves to move us from an alienated, cerebral existence, back into a place where body, mind and spirit can be integrated. Fakir Musafar, one of the first modern piercing masters, says modern culture lacks body rituals. These rituals act as a sacred space to meet the archetypes. It is a process that incorporates magic/shamanistic power, aesthetics and a minor surgical procedure.

The response to a technologically overburdened world can be a rebellion against mechanical impotence. The world has become a harsher place with fewer meaningful returns. There is no support from society to have spiritual content, and values are not being handed down. "Life is way cheap and piercing is an attempt to bring meaning, depth, reclamation into one's life you come back to the body," says Gallina.

There is a fluid connection between piercing and technology. The safety and convenience that technological innovation can provide certainly contributes to the growth, as does the incredible media blitz recently. That piercing seems to have surged in popularity concurrently with technological advancement may indicate an overload of mechanized input, as well as a striving to either reconnect with the physical self, or to rebel against a decaying society. What remains to be seen is the longer term impact of thousands of young people getting pierced. Is it a fad, or is the modern primitive a challenge to the rapidly evolving, personexcluding mechanics of our world?

I believe that the answer is somewhere in the middle — all suburban teens are not seeking an escape from technological inundation, nor do all the current piercees want to emulate Madonna. Even with technological advances and motivations, piercing remains a process that transcends an easy label. It holds its place in the values of not only aesthetics, but ritual, empowerment, affiliation and personal revolution.
